MLJ: To write a character description using information from the text.

Using your word bank and your table you created yesterday write a character description of Ruskin. Remember: we aren't writing a story, so our focus should be on:

- his appearance (what he looks like)
- what he is wearing
- what his personality is like
- how he is feeling

Try to include elements of how his parents view him too.

Example:

Ruskin wanted to be the main part in the play. He felt brave, he felt strong, he felt courageous but not everyone agreed. His parents picked on his thin arms, they were like new branches on a sapling. Ruskin saw something different, he saw the rippling muscles of a super hero! With his incredibly strong arms he could hold up crumbling buildings. If you asked his mum she would say they weren't enough to hold up a bag of candy floss.

There are some sentence starters below to get you started:

- Ruskin wanted to be the main part in the school play, but his parents thought he...
- His mum and dad told him that he was not...
- They were worried that people would...
